M.S.W (MASTER OF SOCIAL WORK)

About

The Master of Social Work program equips students with the essential knowledge and skills required for a professional career in social work. It provides a strong foundation in social work practice, training students to offer services to individuals, groups, and communities. Emphasis is placed on working with underserved or oppressed populations.

Career Scope

In a world grappling with increasing social and economic challenges, the demand for skilled and passionate social workers is at an all-time high. These professionals can find employment in a variety of fields, including rehabilitation centers, the public health sector, and the education sector. They play vital roles in women empowerment, counseling practices, and child and family services, as well as in geriatric services.
